

Antique Rug Studio

Early 19th Century W. Chinese Ningxia Carpet

Description

The creamy ivory ground of this northern Chinese carpet is decorated with an all-over design of bats, “shou” symbols and knots, within a cartouche border of textile patterns and an inner T-fret stripe. The iconography is that of good luck and long life in this circa 1820 carpet.

|                    |                       |
|--------------------|-----------------------|
| Stock ID:          | #20993                |
| General Rug Type:  | Chinese               |
| Specific Rug Type: | Chinese - Ningxia     |
| Circa:             | 1820                  |
| Color:             | Ivory                 |
| Origin:            | China                 |
| Material:          | Wool                  |
| Weave:             | Pile - Knotted        |
| Shape:             | Rectangle             |
| Width:             | 8' 5" ( 256.54 cm )   |
| Length:            | 11' 10" ( 360.68 cm ) |

